

Edmonds Station

Edmonds Station included adding larger passenger loading areas and weather protected passenger shelter. The parking area was updated and improved lighting covers the platforms and parking, and secure bike storage is now available.

The current site was recommended by the City of Edmonds and approved by the Sound Transit Board in summer 2009.

Mode

Light rail

Highlights

Construction completed: Summer 2011

Location: Between Railroad Avenue and Highway 104 from Main Street to Dayton Street

Budget: $12.9 million

Funding partners: Sound Transit, Federal Transit Administration

Planning partners: Sound Transit, Amtrak, BNSF, City of Edmonds, Community Transit, Washington State Ferries

Consultants & contractors

Preliminary and final design: KPFF Consulting Engineers

Construction management: Harris & Associates

Construction: Pellco Construction Inc.

Public art

Respected artist Gerard Tsutakawa created Standing Wave, a landmark sculpture for Edmonds Station.

